DREADFUL DISEASE IS CURED BY CUTICURA

"My six year old daughter had the dreadful disease called hives for two months. She became affected by playing with children who had it, although we did not know it. By scratching she caused large sores which were irritating. Her body was a complete sore but it was worse on her arms and back. We employed a physician who left medicine but it did not help her and I tried several remedies but without avail. Sooing the Cuticura Remedies advertised, I thought I would try them. I gave her a hot bath daily with Cuticura Soap and anointed her body with Cuticura Soap and anointed her body with Cuticura Soap and anointed her body with Cuticura Soap and give them my greatest praise. Mrs. Geo. L. Fridhoff, R. F. D. 1. Warren, Mich., June 30 and July 13, 1908."

Boy's Back Raw

From Shoulder to Shoulder. Scratched till Blood Ran. Cured by Cuticura.

"My son's back was raw from shoulder to shoulder and the width of your hand. I really did not think he ever would be cured. He would scratch until the blood would run and he was like a raw piece of meat. I used different kinds of things but each kind made it worse until I read of the Cuticura Remedies, and one cake of Cuticura Remedies, and one tox of Cuticura Ointment cured him like magic. I would not be without it in the house and I have recommended it to all my friends. Mrs. J. D. Maxwell, 6th St., Woodside, Long Island, N. Y., May 21, 1908."

(From Wednesday's Advertiser.)

A vicious attempt was made late Monday night at Iwilei to kill Bicycle Alameda, three shots being fired at him by some concenled and un-known person. Alameda's life was sav-ed only by the bad marksmanship of the would-be assassin, but neither he nor the other officers who were sent with him to search the vicinity where the outrage was committed could find any trace of the person who fired the shots. The theory of Deputy Sheriff Rose, however, is that the attempt at murder was the result of a recent order issued by the police department that all the gang of Japanese procurers who have so long infested I wilei must move out. The police believe that one of these disgrantled parasites fired the shots at Alameda, who was in plain clothes, be-cause they thought the plain clothes-men to be responsible for the order di-

The officer was riding his bicycle along the road below the cannery, and had just passed a little side road that branches off from the main thoroughfare, when he heard a shot fired behind him and the whistle of a ball. Realizing at once that he was the target at the bullet had been lropped from his wheel and lay flat in the road, waiting for some movement that would show him the position of his concealed enemy. Nothing strired, however, and after waiting a while, Alameda mounted his wheel again and Alameda mounted his wheel again and started to ride on. He had hardly done so when another bullet whistled by as car. A search of the neighborhood falled to locate the would-be murderer, and the officer continued on his rounds.

This was about one o'clock at night. Two hours later the officer was at the Two hours later the other was at the telephone box in the lower part of Iwilei calling in to the station house when another shot was fired at him from the darkness. Alameda notified the police station and a squad of officers was sent down to help him hunt for the man who had three times attempted to nurder him. The search, however, mayailing. No trace could be found f the treacherous gunner.

Deputy Sheriff Rose states that a close watch will be kept over that part of the town and every effort will be made to catch the man. The attack on Alameda followed only a few hours after that on Chief Leal, when the latter was wounded by a knife in the hands of a drunken crap-shooter.

rigged British Lescenter Cartle, and one of the best anown mariners on the Pacific, is a passenger to the States by the S. S. Marama, his vessel being in Auckland in so badly battered a con-dition, that she may have to remain there for good and all.

The ship was bound from Monte Video to Newcastle in bullast, for coal, and had as adventurous a voyage as falls to the lot of any good ship.

When eight days out a huge tidal wave overlook the ship, throwing her on her beam ends. Two week later she suffered serious damage in a gale, and in continued tempestuous weather was a couple of weeks later dismasted and crippled so hadly that for a long time she practically drifted at the mercy of the elements, the majority on board despairing of ever setting foot on land again.

When she finally made a port it was Captain Brown is going to San Francisco to await word from the under-writers in London, and he considers it likely that the vessel will be ordered sold. While no definite orders had been received it is probable that the Leicester Castle would have brought her cargo of coal to Honolulu.

Captain Brown's story, as told yesterday, is as follows:

Video on April 12, and all went well until she was eight days out. The ship was then proceeding along under a light wind, when, without warning, a big tidal wave, estimated at 120 feet high, struck the vessel. Had the ship been fully loaded she must have met with serious consequences. As it was, she was thrown on her beam ends, and was fully ten minutes before she righted again. Those on deck at the time the mountainous wave struck the ship were thrown off their fest. The captain supposes that the disturbance was due to seismie action under the

Nothing of further moment was experienced until Monday, April 26, when tempestuous weather was met with, the vessel then being in 41,18 degrees south and 3.45 west. At 6:10 a. m. that day, such was the force of the wind that the main topgallant yard and sail were carried away. The storm raged for sev eral days afterwards, but the ship safe-ly weathered it, and made Cape Howe, on the Australian coast, on June 10. At eight p. m. that day a strong gale, with heavy running seas, set in, and continued throughout the night, increasand ing in violence as the hours progressed. Six o'clock on the following morning found the vessel laboring heavily in mountainous seas, and further damage was sustained to the masts, sails and the rigging. The gale continued un-abated throughout the day, but towards midnight it eased off, and the following morning found the vessel off Montague Island, 150 miles south of Sydney Heads.

It seemed then that the vessel was to experience fine weather for the re-mainder of the voyage, but on the morning of June 12 the gale again set in, and continued with unabated fury for several days, during which the ship was hove to. On the 16th the fore-topgallant crosstrees snapped, and later the fore-topgallant mast carried away, bringing down the top masthead and all yards, which hung over the side. These would have been removed at once, but the ship was laboring and straining so heavily that the captain deemed it unsafe to send the crew for ward to cut the wreckage away.

The gale then appeared to have blown itself out, as on the 18th and 19th fairly moderate weather was ex perienced. During this time the vessel was hove to in order to enable wreckage to be cleared away, and the captain then determined to go before wind, which carried him to New Zesland. Down the coast the captain and erew naturally had a trying time, but they were favored with light winds

FRENZIED FINANCIER

John Bright, the gay and festive youth who bilked hotels, tradesmen and automobile keepers of Honolulu after being discharged from the insane asylum, and who finally was found at the Palama hospital, where he was staying under the name of Saffery, was taken to Hilo yesterday by Sheriff Pun. The Sheriff received a wireless the night before stating that Bright, who also styled himself John T. Baker Jr. and a few other people, had been con-victed five times of gross cheat at Hilo. The message did not state whether Bright had served out his sentences or not, but Sheriff Pua took a chance and carried the frenzied financier back to the Big Island with him. If it is found that he is not wanted there, the Ho-nolulu authorities will know where to find him, if anyone wants to prefer a charge against him. There are many people in town who could justly do so but most of them seem to prefer to remain modestly in the background, evidently not caring to confess publicly that they allowed themselves to be "done" by a man like Bright.
